Information About the University of Oklahoma

The University of Oklahoma is classified as the Highest Research Activity (R1) on the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education. OU is a comprehensive public research university known for excellence in teaching, research, and community engagement. OU serves the educational, cultural, economic and health-care needs of the state, region, and nation from three campuses: Norman, Health Sciences Center in Oklahoma City, and the Schusterman Center in Tulsa. OU enrolls over 30,000 students and has more than 2,700 full-time faculty members across 21 colleges. In 2014, OU became the first public institution ever to rank #1 nationally in the recruitment of National Merit Scholars. The 277-acre Research Campus in Norman was named the No. 1 research campus in the nation by the Association of Research Parks. Norman, which is part of the Oklahoma City metro area, is a culturally rich and vibrant community of almost 120,000 people that is a perennial contender on "best place to live" rankings. Norman also has outstanding schools, amenities, and a low cost of living.
